

Brotherhood Way Colloquium

The Da Vinci Code*
Fantasy, Falsehood, Facts, and Faith

Panel Discussion featuring

Most Reverend George H. Niederauer, Ph. D., D.D., Archbishop of San Francisco

Rabbi Michael Lerner, author of The Left Hand of God, editor of Tikkun magazine, and “America’s preeminent liberal Jewish intellectual” according to Michael Paley, chaplain at Columbia University

Ms Kelly Macatangay, M.Phil., M.A. Values Education, Silicon Valley data base analyst and specialist in qualitative research, supernumerary member of Opus Dei

Reactions and responses among people of faith to the assertions in the Da Vinci Code include indifference, tolerance, mild offense, anger, outrage, admiration, a strong to desire to defend, and confusion. From a spiritual perspective, the members of our distinguished panel will present a balanced and scholarly view of the novel by Dan Brown. Attendees will separate fact from fiction, participate in a question and answer session, and be sent home to draw their own informed conclusions.

Date: Wednesday, May 31, 2006

Time: 8:00 p.m.

Place: St. Thomas More Catholic Church
1300 Junipero Serra Boulevard at Brotherhood & Thomas More Ways
San Francisco 94132

Tel: (415) 452-9634

MUNI: 17, 18, 26, and 88

Map and directions: www.stmchurch.com

Admission: Free